WOLFE CENTER ELECTS FIVE NEW BOARD MEMBERS

(Napa, CA) Wolfe Center announces the election of Janice Clifton, Terence Ford, Gordon Huether, Stephanie Rode and Pat Woodbridge to the Wolfe Center Board of Directors. Janice Clifton has owned Abbey Carpets in Napa since 1985. Gordon Huether is a Napa-based world renowned artist who recently opened the Hay Barn Gallery on Monticello Road in Napa and serves on the Napa City Planning Commission. Stephanie Rode is Commercial Division Manager and Business Manager with Hedgerow Property Management in Napa. Pat Woodbridge is a Marriage and Family Therapist with Kaiser Permanente, and a former Registered Nurse and Substance Abuse Counselor. Terence Ford is a professional photographer and owner of Terence Ford Photography in St. Helena. "We are very fortunate to have these five wonderful community members as part of our board" states Cindy Goodale, Wolfe Center Executive Director. "With their involvement, diverse experience and passion for Wolfe Center's mission, they have taken our leadership to the next level." The Wolfe Center Board is focusing on long-term sustainability for this innovative adolescent treatment program. Other Wolfe Center Board Members include Elisabeth Frater, Kevin LeMasters, Jill Techel, David Linden, Sheila Daugherty, Dolly Matteucci, Joen McDaniel, Barbara Nemko, John Pearson, Cathy Roche and Pat Wolfe.
